

1 Now, the purpose of this amendment is to place a ceiling.
2 Now, there is a second clause to this which gives some 3 leeway. If the Federal Government reduces, then we can 4 increase proportionately through the reduction made by 5 the Federal Government. There are some who do not want
6 the second clause to this, and, Mr. President, if I
7 might, I would like, if I might, introduce this amendment
8 in its entirety and if it fails that way, then I would 9 like to strike the second clause beginning with the 10 word "except" in Line 9 and have a simple limitation 11 of nine per cent on the second go. If I might be able 12 to do that without printing up another amendment, I 13 would like to take two flings at this amendment, one in 14 its entirety and one without the second clause.

15 THE CHAIRMAN: My problem is only the purely 16 mechanical one. It would be in order to offer the second 17 amendment consisting only of the first part of the first 18 one. If there isn't any objection to not reprinting it, 19 it would be permitted.

20 DELEGATE WEIDEMEYER: The second clause has 21 this concept. There hasn't been much incentive from the
